Collection of competition entries

- I will collect the entry myself.
- I will send someone else to collect the entry.
- I will not collect the entry and agree that it will become the property of the promoter of the award in compliance with copyright law.

Conditions of participation

Designers and students of all design disciplines who have not reached 40 years of age on the closing date for submission, January 31, 2014, are admitted to the competition. Members of the jury are excluded from participation.

The number of entries is limited to one entry per participant or participating team.

Participants/teams may submit a maximum of three DIN A2 posters mounted on card-covered rigid foam board (Kapa board), showing products, designs or concepts (i. e. design drawings, models, animation or prototypes).

An additional DVD may be submitted only in the case of video formats (H.264, Quicktime, MPEG4 – max. length three minutes) or in the case of interactive presentations (PDF, Flash).

An envelope with the name of the participant, containing a short CV and a description of the entry (max. 1500 characters) in the German or English language must also be enclosed.

The submission is only valid if a signed copy of the registration form containing all conditions of participation is enclosed. Entries that do not comply with the formal regulations and which have not been submitted by the closing date (January 31, 2014) will not be taken into consideration (the effective date is the date of receipt).

There is no entry fee. All costs for shipment and return shipment of the entry must be paid by the participant.

Those entries that were not selected must be collected within two weeks after notification if the participant wants his or her entry returned. Entries not picked up become the property of the promoter under full consideration of all applicable copyrights. Following the jury appraisal, the original material will be used for repackaging the entries. The participant is responsible for providing suitable and reusable packaging material. The promoter declines any liability for damages.

INTERNATIONAL DESIGN COMPETITION

The appraisal procedure and the division of the prize money will be determined by the jury. Beyond that, the jury can award one or more special mentions. The jury's decisions are final; legal recourse is excluded. No explanations for the rejection of any given competition entry will be provided. By submitting his or her work, the participant fully accepts the competition conditions.

All selected competition entries are presented as part of a final exhibition and are shown in the catalogue. After the jury's decision, the promoter will request models, prototypes and possibly other complementary photographs and drawings. In that case, the nominated participants will receive separate notification with further terms.

The award ceremony and exhibition opening will take place on June 03, 2014.

By signing the registration form, the participant agrees that he or she is legally entitled to claim ownership of the work and is not violating any third party rights. In the case of a group effort or larger creative influence provided by others, all persons entitled to copyright mention must be cited by name.

No copyright, patents and rights of use are transferred by participating and receiving the awards and special mentions. All rights to the work entered remain with the participant.

The competition participant grants the promoter the right to use the submitted work as part of the exhibition, in publications and on the website free of charge, with the creator's name explicitly stated.

By signing the registration form, I accept all conditions of participation in full.
